

MA-IE FESTIVAL THURSDAY

PROGRAM TO HELP STUDENTS CHOOSE MAJOR FIELD HELD

Sophomores, Juniors Hear Speeches By Department Heads

TAKES ENTIRE A.M.

The Sophomore-Junior Guidance Day program was held this morning in the gym from 9 to 12 a.m. to aid University students in the selection of their major for their last two years of school.

All department heads discussed their own departments briefly so that the students might have a general idea of all courses offered by the University.

President Haynes addressed the assembled students at 9 a.m. He was followed by Mr. C. W. Helmstadter, registrar; Dean Edgar A. Holt, history, government and economics; Dr. J. M. Earl, mathematics; Dr. L. N. Garlough, sciences; and Dr. Berthe Koch, fine arts.

At 10 a.m. there was a fifteen-minute intermission.

Following the recess faculty members who spoke were: Mr. J. E. Woods, work-study plan director; Dr. W. H. Thompson, psychology and philosophy; Dr. Benjamin Boyce, English; Dr. Leslie Taylor, education; Dr. J. H. Rhoads, business; Miss Gertrude Kincaide, foreign languages; and Dr. T. Earl Sullenger, sociology.

The program committee included Mr. Helmstadter and Dr. Holt.

Founder Of Junior Science Club Group To Initial Meeting

Miss Nell Ward, associate professor of chemistry, will attend the Nebraska Junior Academy of Science meeting Saturday, May 9, at Lincoln, Nebraska, of which she is chairman and founder.

This is the first annual program of the Junior group, and is to be held at Nebraska Wesleyan University.

The program is given by Nebraska high school students, who will present papers on various subjects of scientific interest.

Mrs. Ward will, in addition to acting as chairman of the Junior program, attend a meeting of the board of control of the Nebraska Science Teachers' Association and also the Senior Academy meeting.

Other Omaha University professors expecting to attend the Senior meeting are Dr. T. E. Sullenger and Dr. Leslie N. Garlough.

Dr. Garlough will present a paper at the Science Teachers' Board of Control meeting.

APPLICATIONS DUE

Gateway and Directory applications for positions on the staff are due May 15, and are to be handed in to Dr. W. D. Maclay not later than that date.

Application blanks may be secured in The Gateway office or from any publications board member.

First-down Is Expecting!!

By LEO PEARCEY

The thumb worn pages of Sergeant's Dog Book and the grueling experience of tending to her every need, desire and whim, is beginning to tell on such hard-bitten athletes as Tyler, Crawford, King, Johnk, and Kulper.

You've probably noticed the white, strained, and exhausted appearances of these boys from Bachelor's Paradise, who would think nothing of the results of sixty minutes of football or basketball.

But, now something which is entirely new and just a little hazy confronts them—First-down is expecting—!!

A large box filled with cotton is one of the many improvements for "the Belle of the campus." If correct diet, clean drinking water every hour, and plenty of exercise and petting is any indication of future happiness, then the boys will feel repaid for some of the high grades they have sacrificed to bring into the world several (they hope) little First-downs.

Work-Study Plan To Be Discussed

A luncheon of the Greater Omaha Association members, to hear discussed the Work-Study plan, will be held Thursday, May 14.

A bulletin discussing the program appeared last Tuesday.

J. E. Woods, director, is desirous of having each University student fill out a questionnaire to aid in putting the plan into operation next fall.

School's German Group Banquets

The German club of the University will hold a banquet at 6:30 o'clock in the Medical Arts Tea-room, Saturday evening.

Dr. Voigt is to be the main speaker, and a play entitled "Das Boese Weib" (The Bad Wife) will be presented. The play will be given in German and is under the direction of Mrs. Siesco.

Gustave Faulkner, president, is in charge of the banquet, assisted by the following committee:

June Erickson, Ellen Hartman, Doris Kinsey, Evelyn Faulk, Ida Gitlin, Francis Savage, John Zitnik and Albert Youngstrom.

University Club Picnics at Park

The Municipal University Women's club held its last meeting of the year last night at Fontenelle park pavilion. The meeting was in the form of a picnic supper and was attended by faculty members and club members and their families.

Mrs. Leslie Garlough was chairman and was assisted by Mesdames J. W. Kurtz and Harriet Benson and the Misses Alice Smith, Elinor Hartnett, Daisy Plummer, Leora Washburn, Neva Carlson, Kathryn Shaw and Gloria Kurtz.

Student Actors to Appear In 14 Skits; Elect Reigning Princess Attira Monday

All Students To Pick Indian Ruler May 11 From Five Nominees

POLLS OPEN AT 10

Princess Attira II, who will reign over the Ma-IE Festival at Peony Park Thursday, will be elected Monday.

Contrary to last year, all students of the University will be permitted to vote.

The election will be held at the Men's Faculty Building from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. The identity of the Princess will not be revealed until she is presented at the Festival Thursday evening at 6:30 in the Peony Park ballroom.

Five Co-eds Running

Five senior women are candidates for the Princess honor.

Nominees are:

Patricia Bush, secretary Kappa Psi Delta, and secretary of Sigma Tau Delta.

Elaine Coulter, member of Orchesis and Women's Athletic Association.

Maxine Steincamp, member of Pi Omega Pi, Women's Athletic Association, and of the cheerleading squad.

Winner of the Princess Attira title last year, when the Ma-IE Festival was held for the first time, was Miss Archie Larson.

Sorority To Give Dance At Chermot

Phi Delta Psi sorority will hold its annual spring dance at the Chermot ballroom this evening at 9 o'clock.

No bids will be sold, but 200 have been issued and will be distributed to friends of the members. A bid list will be used at the door.

Gladys Lear, '37, sorority president, is in charge, assisted by Carol Wigton, '38, Ruth Wigton, '37, and Ellen Hartman, '37.

Guests of honor will be President and Mrs. Rowland Haynes, Dean Rene Stevens, Dean Edgar A. Holt, and Miss Ruth Diamond.

Jack Swanson and his orchestra will play.

Council Election Friday, May 15th

Petitions for next year's Student Council and publications board members must be in by Wednesday noon, May 13, for the all-school election to be held next Friday, May 15.

Five seniors, four juniors, and two sophomores will be elected to the Student Council, and one boy and one girl will occupy positions on the board of student publications.

Petitions should be turned in to any council member or Miss Ruth Diamond, or Kenneth Turner.

MA-IE ANNOUNCEMENTS

Tonight—Complete Rehearsal in Gym, 6:30.

Monday—Election of Princess.

Tuesday Night—Dress Rehearsal at Peony Park, 6:30.

Thursday—Ma-IE Festival.

Over 100 Students In 'Vodvil' Show; Tops Eight Hours of Fun

TICKETS ON SALE

Colorful dances and clever satire of college personalities will be intermingled against a background of rhythmic music in the Ma-IE "vodvil" show at Peony Park on Thursday.

Over 100 Omaha University students will parade their talents in the show, which is the feature of the school's second annual Ma-IE Festival.

School will be dismissed all day Thursday for the affair. The program opens at 4:30 with an Inter-Fraternity Sing, in which sororities and fraternities will compete in presenting their group songs.

Native Island Numbers

Native Hawaiian songs and dances will be presented by Omaha University's Hawaiian trio, Jack Kaaua, Sam Riemann and Steve Harper. The boys will appear in the costumes of their native islands.

Phi Delta Psi

Phi Delta Psi sorority will give the "low down" on Omaha professors in song and caricature. Alpha Gamma Chi will burlesque a burlesque show, and the football players from "Poverty Flat" will give their interpretation of rhythm in a "Pony Chorus."

Have Fourteen Acts

Other skits in the 14-act show, which will begin in the Peony Park ballroom at 7:30, are:

FROSH HAVE Annual PLAY DAY

Freshman Day will be held on Thursday morning, May 14, at Fontenelle Park, it was decided at a meeting of the freshmen last Tuesday noon in the auditorium.

Franklin Spangler, '39, freshman class president, is in general charge of the program.

"The class members will furnish refreshments," said Spangler, "and the entire school is invited."

A tug-of-war and athletic events are planned. The program will be finished in time for participants to reach Peony Park for the Ma-IE Day celebration, which starts at 4:30 in the afternoon.

Freshman Paper

The Gateway will co-operate with the freshman class in a special edition Thursday morning. A freshman staff has been selected for this issue.

Ruth Wemmer, former editor of the South High Tooter, will be editor; Harold Clark will be managing editor; Marjorie Noe, feature editor; James Molse, news editor; and Richard Altman, Robert Lehner, Ruth Behrman, Eunice Blatny, Louise Fore, and Mary Harkness, reporters.

Campus History Group Initiates

The semi-annual initiation of Pi Alpha Theta, national honorary history fraternity, was held Wednesday evening in the Women's Faculty Building.

Four new members were formally initiated. They were Adeline Larson; Betty Majors, '36; Willa Roben, '37; and Ellen Hartman, '37.

Josephine Carroll, '36, president of Pi Alpha Theta, is in charge.

Members are required to have twelve hours of history with a "B" average, and two-thirds of their remaining work must average "B."

Dr. Sullenger Joins Local Writers' Guild

Dr. T. Earl Sullenger, head of the Department of Sociology, has recently been elected to membership in the Nebraska Writers' Guild.

His article on a "Study of Ethnic Groups in Omaha" has been accepted for publication in the Journal of Social Forces, published at the University of North Carolina.

Annual High School Invitation Meet Will Be Held Tomorrow

The second annual University of Omaha invitation track meet to 12 Omaha, Council Bluffs and other local high schools will be held tomorrow at the Technical high school field.

The preliminaries in the high and low hurdles, and the 100 yard and 220 yard dashes will be held at 10 a.m., and the finals in the javelin, broadjump and discus will be held at the same time.

The finals will begin at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

"We expect to have a fine meet, and several records broken," stated Coach Sed Hartman Wednesday.

Those 12 schools entered are: Technical, South, North, Benson, Central, Thomas Jefferson, Abraham Lincoln, Beatrice, Blair, Arlington and Bellevue.

ATTEND PRE-MEDIC DAY

The annual Pre-Medic Day at the University of Nebraska College of Medicine will be held tomorrow. Students from the Omaha University who expect to attend are: Jess Gamble, Paul Stageman, Charlotte Fisher, Frank Goos, William Moore, David Hubler, Louis Diamantis, Harold Janoff and Donald Reuben.

SOPHOMORE EXAMS

Might members of the student body suggest to the University administration that next year the Sophomore Exams be given the first part of the semester rather than at the last.

The last month of school of each semester, especially in the Spring when the perfect weather hinders studying, is a frantic one because students are attempting to complete their required assignments by the end of the term.

The professors cover so much material during the semester, and although a student is excused from his classes for these tests, the necessary class work must be made up.

These long, comprehensive exams are invaluable to the student himself, but, if they are detrimental to his grades shortly before other and more important exams are given, another time of the semester should be chosen for them.

MA-IE FESTIVAL TICKETS

The committee in charge of Ma-ie Day, next Thursday, hopes that the students will purchase their tickets today in order that the committee may know in advance the approximate number planning to attend.

The one hundred tickets already sold forecast a second successful Ma-ie Festival. The careful preparation for the entire day assures all those who attend a fine time.

Let's co-operate in making next Thursday a red-letter day at the University.

UNIVERSITY ACQUIRES LEASE

In conjunction with the plans of the board of regents and the administration to proceed as rapidly as possible in the interests of a new university, the school has recently acquired a two-year lease without option on the N. S. S. A. park at 30th and Wirt. This ground, in addition to the ground adjoining the park which the University already owns gives ample space for the construction of a temporary athletic plant for the University.

All money spent in developing the project is being used with the idea of obtaining the highest value possible when the University is financially able to construct a new and adequate plant on the future campus.

Plans are being laid for a gridiron and practice field as well as new collapsible bleachers. In all probability a track and pits for field events will also be provided. At present there is some hesitation about the construction of tennis courts because of the comparatively high cost of their construction and upkeep.

The utmost effort should be made to provide tennis courts after provisions for foot-

ON THE MAGAZINE RACK

By LLOYD L. LEE

Thoughts on Newspapers—May Atlantic Monthly
(Marco Marrow)

Students of journalism will be greatly interested in this short article on journalism in America. Marco Marrow says that one cannot adequately judge the American press unless one gets a picture of American life as a whole. The author then proceeds to list the many things that have happened since 1890. He says that against this historic background the virtues and faults of newspapers stand out clearly.

"Newspapers are very human institutions. Some are so situated in regard to banks, to public utilities, or to other business interests, that they cannot call their souls their own. There are newspapers which perilously skirt blackmail in their relations with the commercial world. But remember that there are bankers who are crooks, lawyers who are shysters, clergymen who are hypocrites, business men who are racketeers, politicians who are demagogues, and pots who call the kettle black.

We have only to look at the rest of the world, outside of Great Britain and America, to see to what depths journalism can fall.

Thru The Keyhole

The poor old Keyhole staff is taking an awful beating, but still the insidious snooping goes on....Evidently certain dames feel that we are trying to hurt their sensibilities....Oh, well, such is the life of a keyholer, a martyr to the cause of good, clean gossip....(Your acts shall find ye out and ye must pay and pay and pay).

Our investigation service is happy to report that "Dutch" Hesler is expecting a "blessed event"....You dopes, he's expecting to pass Bus. Org....Jerry Gross has been found through the persistence of the Dean of Men, not to mention other prominent campus figures....His first official act was to post his gal's picture in The Gateway office and to begin blowing about how it brightens the place up....(Curiosity seekers may view said tintype between the hours of 8 a. m. and 9 p. m.).

Our "K" men have brot to light Leber's newest heart throb; she is forty-five years old....Riggins likes them a little younger, so 'his' is a bashful girl of forty-four....(Theme song, Just a Gigolo)....With a few sorority and fraternity elections coming up, we hope that brotherly love will not be too seriously strained and peace will reign supreme....(Mind you, no dirty politics, children).

Ma-ie Day is just around the corner and your correspondent hopes to let off a little steam....Let's hope that everyone has as good a time as they think they will, but above all, the peace and serenity of our school must not be despoiled by riotous action on the part of the student body....(Far be it from me to do any moralizing).

My stooges have reported that the boys up at "The Flats" will soon be following "First Down" about with the proverbial shotgun.

Why was Belau wearing colored glasses at a well-known "dive" last Sunday?....Is this a certain fellow's last trip to C. B.?....Why was Davis so mad at the world Monday?....Could it have anything to do with Sunday?....Did Lill break her promise with Hoeffner or is it just gossip?....We suggest a new one for the Phi Delt—Belau-Meyers....but we know also that it was different at one time....Hello, Weiser....Did Rogers try to hang his pin on account of a bet, or was it really the "real McCoy"?....We hear Anderson is really gone for one of the Heintz twins.

Shots About the Campus—Befuddled Orchesis dancer flopping gracefully over her jumping rope during recital....Astonished librarian turning back the angry hordes pouring into the steam-heated library as exams draw near....Flabbergasted male being embraced by coy miss in Kountze Park....Hair pulling, not to mention eye scratching, as rival Ma-ie Day candidates vie for honors....Greensward dotted by young hopefuls competing with noisy lawnmowers and hurled lunch papers.

ball and track have been made. A co-operative student-care system, such as used at Technical high school, would abolish practically all upkeep expense. As for salvage on the initial expense we see no reason why an arrangement with the city could not be made whereby the city would take them over, increase their number if necessary, and operate them on a basis similar to Dewey Park. There is a definite shortage of good tennis courts in this part of the city.

First-Down Prepares

Think of the experience the boys from Paradise are getting cooking their own meals, keeping their own house clean, washing, ironing and sewing their own clothes, and now they are going to be God-mothers. Whew, and this is leap year, girls!

Dates for the "Blessed event" range from May 20th to the 29th. Every fellow has a specified day to be prepared, with a messenger to call the others. They have even selected about twenty different names for the future meat-eaters, as if that poor, little, innocent, expecting mother doesn't know better. Oh, well, they're trying.

By the way, applications for the "results" should be filled out immediately, first come, First-down will serve.

Hash-House Gossip

They tell me that Mrs. "Mac" is going to install a bed for Tommy Thompson in the Hash House so the little squirt can rest easier while she cuts classes. The only way she will hold her to it, however, will be to get that "person" from C. B. to read her nursery rhymes about dogs and dandlings.

Everything was all quiet last night in the sleeping quarters of the Bachelors, when all at once Bill Kulper started yelling in his sleep about mashie niblicks, putters, drivers, and brassies all coming together and squeezing him. The guy was trying to get over that 9 up and 9 to go defeat hung on him by Fred Hoeffner.

Virginia Lee's "G" man loaned her his "g" car the other evening, but left the gun in the side pocket to keep away two-timers. Gene, you don't have to worry about that. She's ready for the "kill."

That kid Tyler's in the big shot class now. All the little kids he helped sneak in at the Dakota Relays asked him to autograph their programs. Well, he won, so I guess he deserved the break.

A Hard-Working Coach

Everyone seems to be razzing Coach Hartman about his apparent disinterest in intra-mural sports. Consider that he has spring football, track, a new field to build, and an Omaha University Invitation High School Track Meet to sponsor. Of course, this only takes up about sixteen hours a day. Maybe he should do something more for two sports which are already progressing.

The temperature in Nebraska must be nearing that of Hawaii. Steve Harper takes off his shoes every day in Speech class. Now the mystery of why that speech on "The Stock Yards" was so realistic is solved.

Reporter Interviews Byrd

A reporter on The Crescent, Evansville College paper, interviewed Admiral Richard Byrd for his publication while the latter was there to deliver lectures on his antarctic expeditions. According to the account of the interview Byrd maintained the attitude "stick around a little while" rather than the "here's your hat" usually found in famous personalities.

The administration slogan used to be "Balance the Budget"—but now it appears to be "Budget the Balance of It."

"One may sympathize with struggling youth," says Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur of Stanford, urging higher medical school standards, "but one should sympathize more with the future patients."

Who Is It?

He doesn't drink, but he smokes, and enjoys telling jokes. He also laughs at other people's jokes, which denotes a sense of humor. If you still don't know who it is—he's the boy that was surprised in the dean's office last year playing 'London Bridge Is Falling Down.' His wife calls him Joe and he believes that a man's place in the home is in carpet slippers.

Here 'N There

Man dwells inside, not outside the earth, says Prof. P. Emilio Amico-Roxas of Buenos Aires, who maintains that the globe is a hollow sphere.

Theme Songs

One college paper has made the following suggestions for theme songs:

"A Little Bit Independent," for the new Philippine republic.

"The Broken Record," for Joe Louis.

"I'm Living in Great Big Way," for Kate Smith.

"Chasing Shadows," for the Italian soldiers on the Ethiopian front.

And the following drama for examinations: Before the exam, "I wish I were Aladdin"; during the exam, "Where Am I?"; after the exam, "Out in the Cold Again."

Kidnappers, Beware!

An anonymous letter threatening death to two Baylor University girls was received by their parents some time ago.

Somebody ought to tell the extortionist that he'd better stick to the old-fashioned baby kidnapping, since college girls aren't so easy to handle.

Prof. Herbert Bolton, of the University of California's history department, believes he has solved the problem of keeping his students from cutting classes. He offers a daily prize for the best limerick summarizing his preceding lecture.

Spring Cynicism

When a young man swears undying devotion, says Dr. Calvin Stone of Stanford University, he should hold his head instead of clasping his hand over his heart. What counts, says the doctor, is the pituitary gland at the base of the skull.

Most young men, however, still clasp their hands, for they are aware that they will be holding their heads soon enough.

A few qualities in which chums differ: With men, social ability, occupational choice, size, looks, height, talents, temperaments, and attitudes towards studies. With women, religion, social ability, size, temperament, studiousness, artistic abilities and attitudes towards boys.

Girls Sports

W. A. A. held its May meeting Monday, May 4th. The meeting was largely devoted to material learned at the National Convention in Minneapolis, April 25-29. The election of next year's officers was held. The new officers' names will be revealed at a picnic to be held the latter part of May.

English Fraternity Members Banquet

Thirty members of the Sigma Tau Delta, honorary English fraternity at the University, attended the annual spring banquet of the association at the Aquila Court Tea Room, Tuesday, May 5.

The main address of the evening was given by Dr. Benjamin Boyce, head of the English department. Other speakers included President Rowland Haynes and Irene Rankin, retiring president of the group.

A color scheme in blue and gold was carried out in the table decorations arranged by Patricia Bush and Janet Marks. Mrs. Rene Stevens and Mrs. Rowland Haynes were guests of honor. Gladys Reynolds was in charge of the program, and Bernice Perlmetter was toastmistress.

Nation-Wide Field For Soph Exams

The Sophomore exams which have been given the past week have been given simultaneously in over 600 universities and colleges in the United States.

The Co-operative Test Service, which provides these exams for the universities, was established in 1930 through a grant of $500,000 from the General Education Board.

Each individual university pays the cost of printing, scoring and collating the results. It is estimated that this cost would amount to $1.50 per Sophomore tested.

The results will be revealed only to the officers of the University.

By GEORGE THREADGILL

Editor's Note—A member of The Gateway sports staff inaugurated a short series of articles about leading senior athletes on the campus. The following is the second article in the series:

Next is a grand little fellow, the smallest, but one of the mightiest boys on the football team—Noel (Noley) King. King is noted for his fine personality and good humor. He, like Pearey, comes from Thomas Jefferson and has played a great deal of football. "Noley" is only five feet six inches tall, but one of the toughest men ever to don a Cardinal uniform. He proved his worth by being selected on the N. I. A. A. conference team last fall. Coach Hartman could always depend upon Noel to carry out his job; he never once laid down. Johnny Baker, Cardinal line coach, praised King in many respects. The team will not be alone in missing Noel next fall, but he should make a very fine coach, for he knows his football and can teach it as well. On the practice lot, when one of his opponents would make a mistake, he was always kind enough to make a correction; this proved very beneficial to his understudies. We will be watching for his name as a future coach, and our best wishes are with Noel.

Sorensen, Tyler Win Firsts At Dakota Relays

Howard Sorensen and Fred "Tippy" Tyler, track aces for the Omaha University Cardinals, brought home first-place honors from the Dakota Relays at Sioux Falls last week.

Sorensen, graduating senior, threw the discus 133 feet, 7 inches, to surpass all other competitors.

Tyler, junior cinder ace, tied the ten-year record of 15.2 seconds in the 120-yard high hurdles. Tyler is expected to run the hurdles in 15 flat before the end of the season.

Both Sorensen and Tyler hold records in the Nebraska Inter-collegiate Athletic Association.

going on here
...what's happening
in these 40 houses*

—the curing and ageing of leaf tobacco, that's what's going on.

Thousands of hogsheads of mild ripe tobacco are under these roofs... just lying here ageing and sweetening and mellowing for Chesterfield cigarettes.

Like Rip Van Winkle, they sleep—the tobaccos getting mellower and milder for the cigarette that satisfies.
